

Electronic Mail Request for Drainage

Pursuant to Iowa Code Sec 468.17A any person entitled to receive notice via postal service mail may also request to be sent an unofficial version of the notice to an electronic mail address. The board may retain the electronic mail addresses of private persons for the purpose of sending those persons electronic mail under this section or any other correspondence if the person consents to receiving that correspondence by electronic mail. The electronic mail addresses retained by the board are confidential records under section 22.7. At any time you may request to have your electronic mail address removed from the record used to send notices and correspondence.

Please complete the form below and list all parcels that you would like to receive electronic mail correspondence such as Public Hearing Notices, Engineer's Reports, Benefit Commission Reports, etc. related to drainage.
